

During Youth Protection Month, each unit in the Chief Seattle Council is encouraged to participate in one or more of the following ways:

- Ensure that unit adult leaders (and other interested adults) take the online Youth Protection training. Simply click on the link for this training located at www.seattlebsa.org.
- Discuss with youth in a unit meeting the exercises in "How to Protect Your Children From Child Abuse: A Parent's Guide." (These are found in the pullout pamphlet in the front of youth and adult handbooks.
- Using the meeting guides, present the age-appropriate, award-winning BSA training to youth and parents. Click below links to visit page at scoutstuff.org:

For Cub Scouts—"It Happened to Me" (No. AV-09DVD11)

For Boy Scouts—"A Time to Tell" (No. AV-09DVD04)

For boys and girls age 11 to 14—"A Time to Tell for Learning for Life" (No. AV-09DVD05)

For young adults (boy or girl, ages 14 to 20)—"Youth Protection: Personal Safety Awareness" (No. AV-09DVD27).

- In Cub Scout packs, distribute and discuss the Power Pack Pals comic books, which focus on bullying (No. 33980), Internet safety (No. 33981), and personal safety (No. 34750). These BSA resources are available at the Puget Sound Scout Shop or go to www.scoutstuff.org.
