

How can I see my training record? How can I see my unit's training records?

1. Log on at MyScouting.org

2. Select "Training Validation"

3. Select "Youth Protection Training (only)" OR "All Training"

4. Enter your Username again or your BSA member #.
Units: Using BSA member #s from your unit charter or roster, you can access the training records of registered adults in the unit.

Notes:

- If you have just taken online training, it will be posted immediately, but you may need to refresh your webpage before looking at your record.
- If you have taken a class, it may not be posted for a few weeks.

NOTES:

1. If you have just taken online training, it will be posted immediately, but you may need to refresh your webpage before looking at your record.
2. If you have taken a class, it may not be posted for a few weeks.
