PLANNING CALENDAR 2018-2019

Additional dates through 2023
Building the Council Annual Plan

Boys' Life[®] is Good Scouting

Program Delivery: Through its two editions—the Cub Scout edition and the Boy Scout edition—BOYS' LIFE provides program-specific material for Cub Scouts (adventure loop and pin activities) and Boy Scouts (program features and merit badges).

Membership Retention: We have long recognized that BOYS' LIFE has a direct influence on membership retention. BOYS' LIFE subscribers stay in Scouting longer, usually more than twice as long as Scouts who do not get BOYS' LIFE.

Family Support: More than 1.1 million Scouts subscribe to BOYS' LIFE. Pass-along readership adds another 3 million readers, mostly moms and dads, brothers, and sisters. Family members who read BOYS' LIFE become stronger in their support of Scouting.

Encourage all of your units to be 100 percent signed up for BOYS' LIFE.

Steps in Building the Council Annual Plan

The Council Strategic Plan and JTE

Begin by reviewing the metrics defined in the council strategic plan and the Journey to Excellence (JTE) requirements for the unit, district, and council. This groundwork should influence and inspire the subsequent steps in making the council annual plan.

The process of building the annual plan should begin well in advance of the quarter in which the plan will take effect. Starting early allows the logical steps to be taken in order, makes it possible to involve many people in unhurried deliberation, and permits basing the annual budget on the resulting plan.

Steps in building an annual plan vary somewhat with different councils. Flexibility is fine as long as the basic principles are thoroughly respected:

1. The planning process is begun early.
2. All key leaders are involved.
3. The council makes one united plan—"all for one and one for all"—in which each district has its share.
4. The plan is complete in all its parts: objectives, program, calendar, work schedule.

In general, the steps in building an annual plan are as follows.

See scouting.org for unit annual program planning guides as a resource.

Staff Planning Conference

The professional staff develops a proposed plan. This is called a "pencil draft" to emphasize the fact that while the staff suggests, the volunteers make the final decision. This planning should be based on a thorough knowledge of unit needs, district needs, and the desires of volunteer groups. Having the pencil draft prepared in advance conserves the time of many volunteers and provides them with a good starting point.

District Officers' Conferences

A series of informal conferences follows the staff planning conference. The meeting of district officers, or the district executive committee, is to review the pencil draft and make any changes that seem desirable. The important thing is that this process gives each of these key leaders an opportunity to share in the thinking and to be prepared for the council planning conference that is to follow.

Council Planning Conference

This meeting, involving the key leaders of the council and its districts, is best held on an afternoon and an evening. The first part is devoted to group meetings that consider the plan for each operating committee. When this has been completed, the groups join to hear the presentation of each committee's plans. The plan refined in this meeting goes to the council executive board for its adoption.

The Districts Detail and Define Their Share

At the next regular meeting of the districts, the council's plan and the districts' shares in it are reviewed. Each committee details and defines its program and calendar.

The council program is broad and general, as it affects the program of the various functions. It may include a "camporee in every district," but it does not specify either the date or the place. The council has established new-unit objectives, but it does not specify where or when these are to be organized. Thus, there remains to each district and each committee a considerable task of putting in the specifics and details.

Unit Planning Conference

After the commissioner staff reviews the plan and its part in it, the council prepares an annual program planning kit for each unit. The kits are distributed as part of a councilwide program kickoff or at a unit planning conference in each district. Unit program planning kits may be printed or provided in electronic format, or both. The goal should be for every unit to have an annual program plan.

BOYS' LIFE Is Quality Program Help

BOYS' LIFE Is Essential

Through its exciting graphics and award-winning articles, BOYS' LIFE brings Scouting into the home, strengthens membership retention, stimulates rank advancement, and helps all family members feel closer to Scouting.

Two Editions—One Great Magazine

To meet the reading level and Scouting needs of subscribers 6–16 years old, the Boy Scouts of America publishes two editions of BOYS' LIFE each month:

- The Cub Scout edition is filled with pictures, puzzles, comics, and word games appropriate for the 6- to 11-year-old child, and special pages just for Tigers and Webelos Scouts.
- The Boy Scout edition has more editorial content geared to the older youth with a Scouting emphasis on a selected Scout program feature and two new merit badges each month.

Appearing monthly in each BOYS' LIFE edition are Scouts-in-Action, Pedro, Pee Wee Harris, Bible Stories, and Think & Grin. And every issue of BOYS' LIFE is filled with wholesome and educational articles and stories that reflect the principles and ideals of Boy Scouts of America.

Make Your Unit 100 Percent BOYS' LIFE

A unit qualifies as a 100 percent BOYS' LIFE unit when a subscription to BOYS' LIFE goes into the home of each youth member. A 100 percent BOYS' LIFE unit receives a special recognition ribbon for its unit flag.

The Silent Assistant

BOYS' LIFE works in the absence of direct leadership. Even for Scouts who must miss a meeting or two, BOYS' LIFE will be there, helping them to work on their Scouting projects.

2018–2019 Calendar of Religious Dates

There are certain dates and religious observances that must be adhered to by the individual. Arrangements must be made for participation in special services. The Islamic (Muslim) year begins with Muharram. All Islamic dates are subject to sighting of the moon; an event may be one day earlier or later than the date listed. According to the Eastern Orthodox Church calendar, the day begins after evening vespers at sunset and concludes with vespers on the following day. For this reason, the observance of all Eastern Orthodox holy days begins at sunset on the evening before the holy day. Jewish holidays begin at sundown of the first date listed and end at nightfall of the last date listed. A religious institution has the option of celebrating Scout Sunday/Scout Sabbath at its discretion. For example, the United Methodist Church always celebrates Scout Sunday on the second Sunday in February.

Note: * Usually begins at sundown the day before this date.

 Local customs may vary this date.
